Vanguard[®]

All-in-one diversified portfolios

- Vanguard's suite of ETFs are designed to simplify investment management and mitigate risk through asset allocation.
- Each portfolio is a single-ticket solution providing broad global diversification using different blends of several core Vanguard ETFs.
- Regular rebalancing helps to maintain exposure, across key sub-asset classes, to the target allocations and risk levels.
- Low costs help investors keep more of the portfolios' potential returns.

Vanguard is a leader in portfolio solutions

Vanguard is one of the world's leading asset managers, with $8.5 trillion* in assets under management (AUM) globally. In addition to a broad and deep menu of indexed and actively managed equity and fixed income mutual funds and ETFs, we are a leader in single-fund solutions. We have more than $1.1 trillion in AUM in balanced, target-date, and target-risk funds combined.

¹ The management fee is equal to the fee paid by the Vanguard ETF to Vanguard Investments Canada Inc. and does not include applicable taxes or other fees and expenses of the Vanguard ETF. For any Vanguard ETF which invests in underlying Vanguard fund(s), there shall be no duplication of management fees chargeable in connection with the Vanguard ETF and its investment in the Vanguard fund(s).

² The management expense ratio (MER) is the audited MER as of March 31, 2020, including waivers and absorptions and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value. The MER without any absorptions or waivers would have been 0.25% for VCNS, VBAL, VGRO, VCIP and VEQT. Vanguard Investments Canada Inc. expects to continue absorbing or waiving certain fees indefinitely but may, in its discretion, discontinue this practice at any time. For recently launched funds, MER information is not yet available.

³ Allocations shown are as of September 30, 2020. Percentages may not add up to 100% due to rounding.
